

Atkinson Design is currently looking to fill the following position for our client in their Montreal office....

Position: Mechanical Design Engineer, Intermediate Level Bi-lingual

Location: Montreal , Quebec

Role: (Full time)

We are seeking an Intermediate Engineer to work in our clients Montreal office providing support as an AutoCAD operator and completing technical documentation onsite . The successful candidate will act as an individual contributor, bringing mechanical engineering experience especially in technical writing.

Responsibilities:

- Prepare and modify mechanical drawings using AutoCad, product or system layouts and BOM's by reviewing sketches, specifications and supporting documents using; conferring with engineers and product designer's.
- Responsible for all assigned projects and work supporting both sales and manufacturing departments to accomplish project objectives.
- Support product development, product phase-out planning, product support and maintenance.
- Create solid models and detailed drawings for designs and maintain design control documentation and project files.
- Apply knowledge of regulatory codes related to commercial and company standards to develop specifications for mechanical systems.
- Practical hands-on experience in creating technical documentation and standards.
- Document translation

Qualifications:

- MUST BE FLUENT IN BOTH FRENCH AND ENGLISH TO BE CONSIDERED
- Ability to read and comprehend spec drawings and engineering change orders and to exercise independent judgement.
- Ability to write correspondence and to effectively communicate with other employees and some cases customers.
- Must be proficient in AutoCad and 3D modeling software.
- Must be familiar with machines and tools, including their designs and uses.
- Two + years actual industry product design experience involving sheet metal design.
- Specific work experience in mechanical detailing, assembly and modeling.
- Two+ years of technical standard documentation and writing
- Excellent verbal and written communication skills.
- Willing to travel between Montreal and Minnesota on a regular basis

Interested candidates should send their resumes to wendy.atkinson@gadp.com. Please indicate Bilingual Mechanical Engineer in the subject line.